Fall Featured Plants: Bulbs

You'll notice a lot of change during Autumn on Little Island, as plants and trees change colors before going dormant—nature's way of going to sleep until the Spring. During this key phase in the plant life cycle, you'll be able to appreciate the textures and structure of our perennial plantings. Many of the flowers from this past year may have faded, but their seed heads, berries and stems will persist throughout the Fall and into Winter.
